Mrs. Indrieri's last letter asked Mr. Greentree to pass some letters to various Salvadoran Government officials. This was done and the Department was informed. According to Mr. Greentree, the letter did not ask for a response, so none was given.

All employees of the hotel, including the bartender, were interviewed by Pat Lasbury and no useful information was obtained.

Ms. Lasbury was unable to locate the taxi driver who took John Sullivan to the hotel.
